

Hunton Andrews Kurth (UK) LLP - Complaints Procedure, London

We want to give you the best possible service. However, if at any point you become unhappy or concerned about the service, we have provided then you should inform us immediately, so that we can do our best to resolve the problem.

In the first instance it may be helpful to contact the person who is working on your case to discuss your concerns and we will do our best to resolve any issues.

As an alternative, you can contact the London office Client Care Contact. Our current Client Care Contact is Ferdinand Calice. Ferdinand may be contacted by email at fcalice@huntonAK.com or by writing to Ferdinand Calice, Client Care Contact, Hunton Andrews Kurth (UK) LLP, 30 St Mary Axe, London EC3A 8EP England. We will endeavour to send you a letter acknowledging receipt of your communication within three days of receiving it. You have certain rights if you disagree with any bill from the Firm, provided that it does not relate to a matter in litigation. You have the right to ask the Firm, within one month of receiving a bill, for a certificate from the Solicitors Regulation Authority stating that in its opinion the fees are fair and reasonable and, if not, what amount would be fair and reasonable. You also have the right to have a bill assessed by the courts, whether matters are in litigation or not.

Making a complaint will not affect how we handle your case.

What to do if we cannot resolve your complaint

The Legal Ombudsman can help you if we are unable to resolve your complaint ourselves. They will look at your complaint independently and it will not affect how we handle your case.

Before accepting a complaint for investigation, the Legal Ombudsman will check that you have tried to resolve your complaint with us first. If you have, then you must take your complaint to the Legal Ombudsman:

- Within six months of receiving a final response to your complaint and

- No more than six years from the date of act/omission; or
- No more than three years from when you should reasonably have known there was cause for complaint.

If you would like more information about the Legal Ombudsman, please contact them.
