Sergio F. Oehninger Serving as Vice President of the Hispanic Bar Association of the District of Columbia

Washington — August 14, 2009 — Sergio F. Oehninger, an associate in the firm's McLean office, was elected Vice President of the Hispanic Bar Association of the District of Columbia in January 2009. As Vice President, he actively participates in managing the affairs of and formulating the policies for the Association. He is responsible for coordinating membership recruitment and retention and has appeared publicly on behalf of the Association. Oehninger also serves as a member of the Association's Endorsements Committee, which evaluates candidates for federal and state judicial vacancies and bar leadership positions in the DC area. In addition, he sits on both the Steering and Awards Committees for the Association's Equal Justice Awards Gala.

The Hispanic Bar Association of the District of Columbia is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, voluntary legal association representing the interests of Hispanic attorneys, judges, law professors, law students, and legal professionals within the greater DC Metro area. Its mission is promoting the professional development of Hispanic lawyers and law students; promoting equal justice and opportunities for all Hispanics; and promoting the appointment of qualified Hispanics to leadership positions in federal, state, and local governments, in the judiciary, and in other leadership positions. For more information or a membership application, visit www.hbadc.org.

Oehninger's legal practice focuses on complex civil litigation, with an emphasis on commercial insurance coverage and reinsurance matters. He is a member of the Virginia State Bar and District of Columbia Bar. He also is admitted to practice in the United States District Courts for the Eastern District of Virginia, Western District of Virginia, District of Columbia, and District of Colorado. He is a native Spanish speaker and resided in Uruguay for a decade.
